Dr. Tamisha Jones Promoted to Legacy Community Health’s New Senior Medical Director of Clinical Affairs

HOUSTON (April 14, 2021) – Legacy Community Health is excited to announce that Dr. Tamisha Jones has accepted a new position as Senior Medical Director of Clinical Affairs. In this new role, Dr. Jones will focus on oversight and alignment of the medical service lines and identifying collaborations to help improve health outcomes and the patient experience.

“I have had the pleasure of working with Tamisha on numerous projects over the last five years, and what I find the most exciting about her is her many layers of talent and skill,” says Dr. Vian Nguyen, Chief Medical Officer at Legacy. “It has been even more gratifying to watch her exceptional dedication to her family and children, and that certainly includes commitment to her patients, team members and the communities we serve.”

Tamisha has been at Legacy for nearly 10 years. During that time, she has served as a pediatrician at Legacy’s Fifth Ward clinic and in various leadership roles including her current role as the Medical Director of Pediatrics.

“One of the things that I’ve loved about my work at Legacy is the ability to collaborate across all of the departments and specialties,” says Dr. Jones. “I’m excited to be able to continue collaborations that have already begun, and to effect change for the entire clinical team and patients that consider Legacy their medical home.”

Dr. Jones will transition to her new role when her current role of Medical Director of Pediatrics is filled.
